The Lance Volume 44
Class of 2006

Congratulations

Class of 2006

Picture this: each student becoming a photograph, a memory preserved within this collage that depicts our four-year venture known as high school. Each of us having our own unique experiences, yet collectively intertwining them to create the "album" of our senior class...

When we begin to look back at the portraits of our youth, the pictures become animated, like movies we never thought we would star in. The memories alive in each image tell our story. As our past relives itself through each picture, we are left speechless in only our laughter and tears. The faces of friends transform into a family, one that has shared every crazy adventure together.

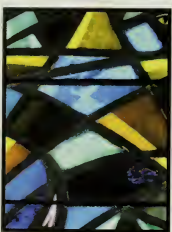

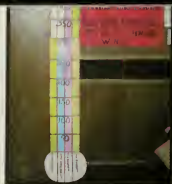

We realize that a photo could never genuinely express the culmination of every emotion we have felt in our past years, yet we create such a compilation to give insight as to what we are all about. We leave these memories for all to see in our yearbook as we go our separate ways. However, the true feelings we once experienced will remain imbedded deep in our hearts for an eternity.

...they will never be unspoken for, for every picture is worth a thousand words.

-The combination of thoughts and opinions reflected by the Yearbook staff.

Congratulations!

Today is your day!

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
any direction you choose.

You're on your own - And you know what you're doing.

And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.

You can get so confused

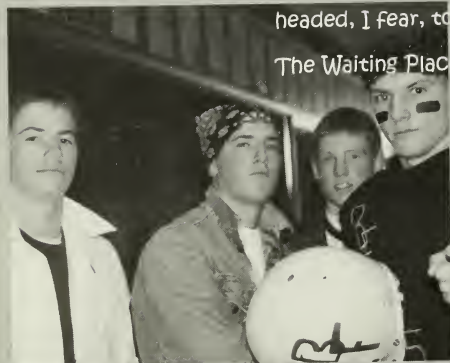

How you'll come in to ride

down long rugged roads at a break-necking pace

and wind on for miles across weirdish wild space

headed, I fear, toward a more useless place.

The Waiting Place

...for people just waiting

Waiting for a train to go on a bus to come, or a plane to fly

on the mail to come, or the rain to go on the phone to ring, or the snow to melt or waiting around for a Yes or a No or waiting for their hair to grow.

Everyone is just waiting.

NO! Take care for you!

Somehow you'll escape

all the waiting and craving.

You'll find the bright places

where boom bands are playing

You're off to Great Places!

But on you will go through one another de pou!
 On you will go
 through your enemies' proud
 On you will go through one I know you know Onward up them
 a lightning creek.

You're off and away!

On and on you will take through your snits may get sore and I know you'll bite fat and your sneakers may leak and take up to your problems whatever they are

You're mixed up, of course
 as you already know.

You're mixed up
 with many strange birds as you go
 So be sure when you step

Step with care and great tact and remember the life's a Great Baldpate Act

Just never forget to be generous and deft

And never mix up your right from left your left.

And will you succeed?

Yes! You will, indeed!

(as and 3 1/2 percent guaranteed)

KID, YOU'LL MOVE MOUNTAINS!

So...

be your name Bushbaum or Bixby or Bray or Mondloch or Van Allen or O'Shea,

you're off to Great Places!

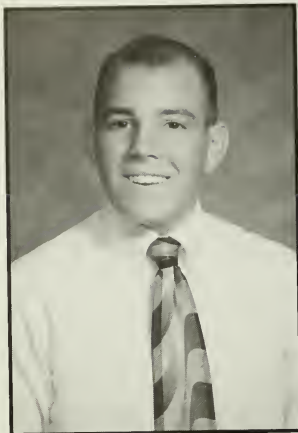

Today is your day!

Your hometown is waiting.

So get on your way!

Adapted from Dr. Seuss'
 "Oh The Places You'll Go"

The Desiderata

"Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others; even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexatious to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy "

I Believe in You

*Aren't you the little one that hid in my arms afraid of the thunder?
Are these the little hands that held so tight to mine?
Didn't we both agree that you'd never grow up?*

*And here we are
and here you go.*

*Of all the things I want to say,
the thing you really need to know is*

I believe in you.

Everything you are everything you are becoming

I believe in you.

*So spread your wings and fly
on the wings of knowing*

I always believe in you.

*So many prayers we prayed,
so many dreams to get to this moment,
now this is where we stay
while you go change the world.*

But I will be where I have always been up in the stands cheering you on and saying these words,

*the words the very God who made you
has been saying all along,*

I believe in you.

*So spread your wings and fly
on the wings of knowing*

I always believe in you.

*And when you rise and when you fall
I'll still believe in you.*

*Just close your eyes
and hear me saying*

I believe in you.
